 - YOU SHOULD OBTAIN INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVICE BEFORE YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT AND GIVE THE GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY.
 - YOU SHOULD ALWAYS CONSIDER OBTAINING INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVICE.
 - YOU SHOULD MAKE YOUR OWN INQUIRIES ABOUT THE CREDIT WORTHINESS, FINANCIAL POSITION AND HONESTY OF THE BORROWER.

Consumer Credit Contract - Additional Disclosure Statement

Under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, we must give you certain information when entering into consumer credit contract with us. This information is provided to you by way of a Disclosure Statement (referred to as an Initial Disclosure Statement)

On 6 June 2015, the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 changed and there is now some extra information we need to give all borrowers who enter into a new consumer credit contract with us. We have chosen to include this extra information in this document (Additional Disclosure Statement).

This Additional Disclosure Statement also makes some important amendments to the Initial Disclosure Statement we have given you. These amendments concern our ability to charge default interest and your right to cancel this Contract. We have described these amendments in detail below.

This Additional Disclosure Statement forms part of your Contract with us. You should read it carefully and keep it in a safe place. If you do not understand anything in this Additional Disclosure Statement, please ask us for help or seek legal advice.

Some of the capitalised terms in this Additional Disclosure Statement are defined in the Initial Disclosure Statement. You should read this Additional Disclosure Statement together with the Initial Disclosure Statement and the Terms and Conditions to ensure you completely understand this Contract.

FINANCIAL TABLE - ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE

Changes to Default Interest charges/Default Fees

The Initial Disclosure Statement describes the situations where we may charge you default interest. If we decide to charge default interest on an overdue amount, default interest will only be charged on the amount in default from the time when that amount was due until that amount is paid. Default interest will no longer be charged on the unpaid daily balance.

Additional Information about our Security Interest

The Initial Disclosure Statement describes the Security Interest we have over the Vehicle to secure the payment of all money, and the performance of all of your obligations.

Below is some further important things to know about the security we take.

- If you fail to meet your commitments under this Contract or any other Finance and Security Agreement, we are entitled to repossess and sell the Vehicle. Your obligation to pay all amounts you are required to pay us under this Contract will continue. If we sell the Vehicle or other property that is secured by the Security, we may deduct from the amount you owe us, an amount equal to the sale proceeds we receive from that sale once we have deducted our related costs and expenses.
- If you sell, lease, transfer or in any way lose possession or control of the Vehicle, you will be in default under this Contract and we may be entitled to collect the Vehicle and that other property from any other person or business who has possession of them.

Continuing Disclosure and Electronic Communication

We will send you statements with information about your Contract every 6 months either, at our option, by post, facsimile, email or through our website. If we decide to send statements, notices, documents and communications to you or a Guarantor electronically, by entering into this Contract you and each Guarantor consent to us sending such information in that manner, including by email to the addresses specified in this Disclosure Statement, or such other email address provided to us, or through our website.

Your use of the Vehicle

By entering into this Contract, you confirm that the money being advanced to you is to be used to acquire a vehicle that will be used for personal, domestic or household purposes, and not for business purposes.

Your right to cancel the Contract

As explained in the Initial Disclosure Statement, you have the right to cancel this Contract for a short time after you enter it.

The recent changes to the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 have extended the timeframes in which you may cancel this Contract. We have set out the new cancellation procedure over the page in the "THINGS YOU MUST KNOW" section. This replaces the procedure described in the Initial Disclosure Statement.

What to do if you suffer unforeseen hardship

If you are unable to keep up your payments under this Contract because of an unexpected event that causes you hardship, such as illness, injury, loss of employment or the end of a relationship, you can apply to us for a hardship variation. You should do this as soon as possible, because if you leave it for too long, we do not have to consider your application.

To apply for a hardship variation you need to make a request to us in writing which explains your situation and requests one of the following variations:

- extending the term of this Contract and reducing the amount of each payment due under this Contract accordingly (without a consequential change being made to the annual interest rate);
- giving you longer to pay by postponing, during a specified period, the dates on which payments are due under this Contract (without a consequential change being made to the annual interest rate); or
- both of the above – postponing payments for a specified time and reducing the amount of your payments by extending the term.

6.4 Interest on overdue payments

If you fail to pay any amount under the Contract on the due date for payment, you will pay interest on the unpaid daily balance (which includes interest and all other applicable fees and charges) at the Overdue Rate, from the end of the day the payment was due until you pay the overdue amount in full. All payments in this Contract must be made by direct debit or as we otherwise direct.

If you decide to fully repay all amounts payable by you under this Contract before the final payment is due, we may require you to pay to us, upon demand:

- (a) our administration fee specified in Schedule A; and
- (b) a fee or charge to compensate us for any loss we suffer resulting from the full prepayment. The amount you have to pay us for this loss will be calculated using the formula prescribed in regulation 9 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2004.

6.8 Days for payment

Business Day means a day that is not:

- (a) a Saturday or Sunday; or
- (b) a statutory public holiday in New Zealand.

6.9 Set-Off

We may set-off any amount we owe you or to any Guarantor against any amount you or any Guarantor owe or may owe us under this Contract or any other Finance or Security Agreement.

You will not withhold Repayment or other monies you owe us, or exercise any right or claim to any set-off.

6.10 Anti-money laundering and sanctions

You agree that we may delay, block or refuse to process any transaction without incurring any liability if we suspect that:

- (a) the transaction may breach a law in New Zealand or any other country or does not comply with any of our policies, including our risk policy;
- (b) the transaction involves any person (natural, corporate or governmental) that is itself sanctioned or is connected, directly or indirectly, to any person that is sanctioned under economic and trade sanctions imposed by the United States, the European Union or any other country; or
- (c) the transaction may directly or indirectly involve the proceeds of, or be applied for the purposes of, unlawful conduct.

You, and each Guarantor, must provide all information to us which we reasonably require in order to manage money-laundering or terrorism-financing risk or to comply with any laws in New Zealand or any other country and you, and each Guarantor, agree that we may disclose any information concerning you to any law enforcement, regulatory agency or court where required by any such law in New Zealand or elsewhere.

If a Guarantor is acting in a trustee capacity or on behalf of another party, they warrant that they are acting on their own behalf in entering into this Contract.

You declare and undertake to us that the payment of monies by us in accordance with your instructions will not breach any laws in New Zealand or any other country.

7. SECURITY

7.1 You grant us a Security Interest in the Vehicle, all proceeds, and in all of your present and future rights in relation to that Vehicle and those proceeds, as security for the payment of all amounts you may at any time owe us or are payable to us, and the performance of all of your obligations to us, whether under this Contract or any other Finance or Security Agreement (Vehicle Security Interest).

7.2 You will do everything and provide all information you require to establish and maintain a perfected first ranking Vehicle Security Interest.

7.3 You will not change my name or other details without giving us at least 14 days prior written notice.

7.4 You agree that the Vehicle Security Interest:

- (a) is collateral with every other Security Interest or guarantee you or any Guarantor has granted in our favour; and
- (b) shall remain in full force until we sign a final release.

7.5 You agree that nothing in sections 114(1)(a) (to receive notice of sale of goods), 116 (to receive a statement of account), 120(2) (to receive notice of proposal to take goods), 133 (to reinstate security agreement) and 134 (limit on reinstatement) of the Personal Property Securities Act 1999 (PPSA) will apply to this Contract or the Vehicle Security Interest.

7.6 You waive:

- (a) all of your rights under sections 121 (to object to proposal), 125 (damage to goods on removing accession), 129 (notice of removal of accession), and 131 (Court order preventing removal of accession) of the PPSA; and
- (b) my right to receive a copy of the verification statement confirming registration of a financing statement or financing change statement relating to the Vehicle Security Interest.

8. GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

8.1 Full guarantee

In consideration of us entering into this Contract at the request of each Guarantor, each Guarantor jointly and severally:

- (a) guarantees the payment and performance of your obligations under this Contract and any other Finance or Security Agreement;
- (b) will pay to us upon demand all monies which are not paid by you on the due date for payment whether or not we have made demand on you; and
- (c) shall observe and perform as a principal debtor all those terms of this Contract, that are to be observed and performed by you, with which you have not complied within fourteen (14) days after the due date for observance or performance, whether or not we have made demand on you for such observance or performance.

8.2 Our powers

We may at all times without prejudice to the guarantee and indemnity provided under this clause 8 (Guarantee and Indemnity), and without discharging or in any way affecting any of our rights against the Guarantor(s) hereunder:

- (a) vary any term or condition of this Contract provided that the Guarantor(s) shall not be liable for any greater amount than the Guarantor(s) would have been liable to pay under the terms of this Contract had it not been varied;
- (b) grant to you or to any other person including any party hereto any time, credit or indulgence or concession;
- (c) deal with, exchange, release, discharge, modify or abstain from perfecting or enforcing any securities or other guarantees or rights which we may at any time have; and
- (d) do any other thing whatsoever which under the law relating to sureties would, but for this provision, have the effect of prejudicing this Guarantee and Indemnity or discharging or in any way affecting my rights against a Guarantor.

8.3 Indemnity

If the guarantee in this clause 8 is not enforceable against a Guarantor (whether by reason of any legal limitation, disability or incapacity on or of you, or by reason of any other fact or circumstance whatsoever and whether the relevant transactions were void ab initio or have been subsequently avoided and whether or not any of the matters or facts relating thereto were or ought to have been made known to us), then each Guarantor as separate and additional agreements, and jointly and severally:

- (a) indemnify us and shall keep us fully indemnified against all losses, damages, costs and expenses (including legal costs incurred on a solicitor/own client basis), claims, proceedings and all other liability we may suffer or incur by reason of the guarantee under this clause 8 not being enforceable or immediately enforceable;
