Default Interest charges/Default Fees

If you default in a payment under this Contract you must pay interest at the Annual Interest Rate plus 8% (default interest rate) on that amount in default from when it was due until it is paid. You must pay us any applicable Late Payment Fess or Dishonour Fees.

Full Prepayment

If you pay the unpaid balance in full before the final payment is due (full prepayment), you may be required to pay a fee or charge to compensate us for any loss resulting the full prepayment. We may have suffered loss if our current interest rate is lower than the interest rate applying to this Contract.

The amount you have to pay to compensate us for the loss is calculated using the formula prescribed in regulation 9 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004.

You may also have to pay our administrative costs relating to the full prepayment being $60.00.

Security Interest

We will have a security interest over the Vehicle and all proceeds arising from the sale or disposal of that Vehicle to secure the payment of all money, and the performance of all of your obligations, under this Contract and all other Finance and Security Agreements.

If you fail to meet your commitments under this Contract or any other Finance and Security Agreement, we are entitled to repossess and sell the Vehicle. Your obligation to pay all amounts you are required to pay us under this Contract will continue. If we sell the Vehicle or other property that is secured by the Security, we may deduct from the amount you owe us, an amount equal to the sale proceeds we receive from that sale once we have deducted our related costs and expenses.

If you sell, lease, transfer or in any way lose possession or control of the Vehicle, you will be in default under this Contract and we may be entitled to collect the Vehicle and that other property from any other person or business who has possession of them.

Continuing Disclosure and Electronic Communication

We will send you statements with information about your Contract every 6 months either, at our option, by post, facsimile, email or through our website.

If we decide to send statements, notices, and any other requests, documents or communications to you electronically, you consent to us sending such information in that manner, including by email to your address specified in this schedule, or such other email address you provide to us, or through our website. If we decide to send statements, notices, and any other requests, documents or communications to you electronically, you consent to us sending such information in that manner, including by email to your address specified in this schedule, or such other email address you provide to us, or through our website.

What to do if you suffer unforeseen hardship

If you are unable to keep up your payments under this Contract because of an unexpected event that causes you hardship, such as illness, injury, loss of employment or the end of a relationship, you can apply to us for a hardship variation.

To apply for a hardship variation you need to make a request to us in writing which explains your situation and requests one of the following variations:

- a) extending the term of the Contract and reducing the amount of each payment due under the Contract accordingly (without a consequential change being made to the annual interest rate);
- b) giving you longer to pay by postponing, during a specified period, the dates on which payments are due under the Contract (without a consequential change being made to the annual interest rate); or
- c) both of the above – postponing payments for a specified time and reducing the amount of your payments by extending the term. You should do this as soon as possible, because if you leave it for too long, we do not have to consider your application.
